Good things going on in the City

Nov. 2 –15, 2020

VETERANS DAY OBSERVANCE

The City was proud to honor our local veterans by placing 100 yard signs at the homes of those veterans who registered with the City's Marketing & Communications Office or whose names and addresses were provided by friends or relatives. Signs placed at City Hall and the Rec Complex honored the many veterans who work for the City and one sign also was planted in front of the nearest VFW.

The project resonated with residents and veterans alike and the City received many notes of appreciation for our efforts. Many thanks to staff in Code and the Police Department as well as City Arborist Joe Ferris, City Manager Charles Stephenson, Marketing & Communications Officer Laurie Hayes and Assistant Nathan Bynum for delivering the signs throughout the City.

ARTS & CRAFTS FESTIVAL GOES VIRTUAL

The Temple Terrace Arts & Crafts Festival at Woodmont Park had to be cancelled this year due to precautions surrounding Covid-19. The Temple Terrace Arts Council, however, is holding a virtual festival. Go to virtualshows.orderfromtheartist.com/temple-terrace-art-crafts-festival for links to online shopping opportunities with local and regional artisans, now through Nov.18.

JOIN IN THE FUN AT THE TEMPLE TERRACE HOLIDAY GOLF CART PARADE!

The parade will take place on Saturday, Dec. 5 starting at 7pm. The parade begins and ends at the Family Rec Complex, 6610 Whiteway Dr. Spectators are encouraged to maintain social distancing and wear masks. Look for a very special guest in the last cart! (Unfortunately, due to time commitments, Santa will not meet with the children this year.)

Want to be a part of the parade? Drivers MUST register in person at the Family Rec Complex, or by calling 813.506.6600. There is a $10 registration fee (includes a 2021 golf cart registration). Drivers must be 18 years or older. No throwing of beads, candy or other items allowed. No alcohol permitted. All riders must be seated in carts. Staging at 6 pm; parade starts at 7 pm (Mandatory driver meeting at 6:45 pm)

Go to templeterrace.com/holidayparade for more information, including a route map.

ALL FUN AND GAMES

Help support the Temple Terrace Public Library expand their offerings for patrons. Armada Games, 10910 N 56th St., will devote a portion of all board games sales to purchase new games for the Library. And couldn't we all use some fun and games right about now?

MORE PUBLIC ART – AT THE LIBRARY

The Temple Terrace Public Library is being transformed by the City's very own artist extraordinaire, Terry Klaaren and his cohort Anita Long! Thank you to the Temple Terrace Woman's Club, Temple Terrace Arts Council and everyone who donated generously to this project.

DONATIONS SOUGHT FOR MEALS ON WHEELS

The Temple Terrace Public Library is partnering with the Temple Terrace Woman's Club to provide holiday gift bags for Meals On Wheels of Tampa recipients. Help us provide a gift bag of greatly needed items for our older, homebound and disabled neighbors this holiday! Often this is the only gift some homebound recipients will receive. You can drop off your donation at the library through the end of the month.

Needed items include:

- Backscratchers
- Decks of Cards
- Puzzle Books
- Kitchen Towels
- Toothbrushes/paste
- Individually packaged snacks
- Magnifying Glasses
- Notepad
- Pens/pencils
- Non-slip socks
- Coloring books & crayons
- Tissues
- Soap
- Shampoo
- Deodorant
- Dish Detergent

LIBRARY EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Please congratulate Jo Averill-Snell, the Library's employee of the month for October! Jo is the full-time Adult Services Librarian here at the library. She has adapted her programming during the pandemic to include online book club; she has created our themed book displays, and she has created 3D printed objects for scavenger hunts around Temple Terrace, just to name a few of her many contributions. Fun fact: Jo is involved in a local theater group in her spare time. Her most recent work was for the show "Always...Patsy Cline," now playing at the Straz Center.

PAPER QUILT PROJECT

This past summer, the Temple Terrace Arts Council asked City residents what they love about Temple Terrace – and to translate those treasured aspects into a 4 x 4" piece of art. More than 100 squares were collected and assembled into a "quilt" by Arts Council member Anita Long that is being displayed at the Library through the end of the month.

The Arts Council currently is working on putting a second quilt together with the remaining pieces. An interactive art project also is being planned by the Arts Council to recognize favorite works of literature that correspond to the iconic images of the city in the mural.

POTTER'S HOUSE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ANNUAL TOY DRIVE

The City now is accepting donations of new, unwrapped toys and bicycles as well as monetary contributions. In support of the Potter's House Toy Drive. (Make checks payable to "Potter's House Community Development.")

Drop off points are located at Temple Terrace City Hall in the Customer Service area and the Police Department as well as at the Public Library and Family Rec Complex.

Toys will be distributed to local children on Dec. 19 on the grounds of Potter House Community Development, 6916 Harney Road, Tampa.
