Good things going on in the City

Sept. 20 – 26, 2021

SENIOR EXPO A SUCCESS

The 32nd Annual (Drive Thru) Senior Expo at Omar K Lightfoot Center was a huge success, thanks to Lightfoot staff – with a special guest appearance by Council Member James Chambers. Appreciation also goes to our sponsors for providing loot for the swag bags as well as on-site opportunities for meeting and greeting. With a huge hooray for Blaine Conte of Contes Concessions for providing lunch for all the Drive Thru attendees.

BREAKFAST – AND A BIRTHDAY

Many thanks to the GFWC Temple Terrace Woman's Club for treating our first responders to a hearty breakfast this morning. And a very Happy 90th Birthday to Maryrose Owens from all of us who work for the City. And many more...

NEWS ALERT!

Keep an eye out this Thursday for coverage in local media outlets of a VIP media and elected officials tour of the new Amazon facility in Temple Terrace...

BUSINESS ALLIANCE GROUP ESCAPES THE TERRACE

Last week small business owner Tash Johnson, owner of Escape the Terrace, treated members of the Temple Terrace Business Alliance to a nostalgic trip back in time by hosting the group's monthly meeting at her 90s themed escape room. Following a brief general meeting, several local business owners, joined by City Manager Charles Stephenson and Business Relations Manager Greg Pauley, had an opportunity to learn about Tash's unique business model and enjoy a bit of 90s trivia. A great time was had by all.

You can learn more about this local small business by visiting escapetheterrace.com or calling 813-447-8538.

The TTBA is a grassroots, member-driven, business-to-business support and networking organization dedicated to the success of the Temple Terrace business community. To learn more about the Temple Terrace Business Alliance, please contact Roland Charles, Interim Director, at 813-333-9617.

HABITAT DEDICATES TEMPLE TERRACE HOME

The keys to Habitat for Humanity of Hillsborough County's sixth Women Build home were presented on Saturday morning by Temple Terrace Vice Mayor Cherie Donohue to Shalonda Granger in front of a large gathering of well-wishers and Habitat supporters that included City Manager Charles Stephenson and Council members Gil Schisler and Meredith Abel. Special thanks to the 88 Women Build participants (including Vice Mayor Donohue) who raised nearly $55,000 to support Women Build and volunteered to build with Habitat! Credit also goes to corporate partners PNC Bank, Cisco, TCM Bank, Whitney Turner, the DeBartolo Family Foundation and Hillsborough County. Welcome home Granger family!

FLORIDA COLLEGE LEADERSHIP DINNER FEATURED TIM TEBOW

Florida College held its annual Leadership Dinner on September 16 at the Tampa Convention Center. Approximately 1800 – the most ever - were in attendance for dinner, fellowship and a talk by football player Tim Tebow. The audience included 20 attendees from the City of Temple Terrace including Mayor Ross and wife Meg, James Chambers, City Manager Charles Stephenson, directors and other City staff.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT – DRIVE THROUGH EDITION

National Night Out will be a little different this year due to the rapid rise in COVID-19 cases. The Temple Terrace Police Department is working with Mission Hill Church to make the 2021 observance a drive through event. There will be static displays of police equipment and vehicles, as well as private business and non-profit vendors on site.

No matter what the venue or delivery, National Night Out seeks to enhance the relationship between neighbors and law enforcement while bringing back a true sense of community. It also provides a great opportunity to bring police and neighbors together under positive circumstances.

FALL FESTIVAL IS BACK!

The City of Temple Terrace Division of Parks & Recreation, with support from Joanne Kelley, Realtor with Hamlin & Associates, presents the City's FALL FESTIVAL on Saturday, October 30 from 6:30 - 9pm at the Family Complex Soccer Field #1, 6610 Whiteway Drive.
