FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEMPLE TERRACE FIRE DEPARTMENT WILL PARTICIPATE IN TAMPA BAY HURRICANE EXPO 2008

(TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – 5/21/08) – The Temple Terrace Fire Department has been invited to participate in Tampa Bay Hurricane Expo 2008 (Are You Ready Tampa Bay?), joining more than two-dozen other exhibitors at this important, informative event.

The expo is Saturday, May 31 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Museum of Science and Industry (MOSI), 4801 E. Fowler Ave., Tampa. Admission and parking are FREE. Food and drink will be available at reasonable prices, including Disaster Dogs and Hurricane Hamburgers.

The event will feature booths and displays with information on hurricane preparedness, shelters, evacuation routes, pet safety and more. There will be live entertainment, educational seminars and giveaways. The Temple Terrace Fire Department will have a fire engine on hand, along with an information booth and personnel to answer questions about the City's disaster plans.

Many Temple Terrace residents are likely to attend, so it makes sense to have our personnel on hand to field questions and offer advice, said Temple Terrace Fire Chief Keith Chapman. Residents are encouraged to stop by and meet our Temple Terrace firefighters.

Those attending the hurricane expo also will receive discounted admission to MOSI to enjoy the science exhibits and an IMAX film. Admission includes a visit to Disasterville, a 10,000-square-foot collection of exhibits on floods, lightning, hail, volcanoes and other natural phenomena.

For event information, call Bill Wade at (813) 242-5388 or visit www.tampabayhurricaneexpo.com.
