Sections 27.725 through 27.729 shall apply to all attached and detached single-family dwelling units, including townhouses and condominiums, two-family dwelling units, three-family dwelling units, and mobile homes, which are located within the City of Temple Terrace and not occupied by the property owner(s) of the dwelling as a homesteaded primary residence unless the dwelling unit falls into one or more categories of waivers or exemptions set forth below.

This Section shall not apply to multi-family dwelling units, including all apartment, dormitory and hotel/motel dwelling units. Waivers and other exemptions to the Rental Housing Program are listed below:

(a) Waivers. Property owners of dwelling units may apply for waivers from the Rental Housing Program when a dwelling unit is used in one of the categories set forth below as long as the property owners neither request nor receive rent (any transaction of value in which one or more persons provides consideration to a property owner for the use of a dwelling unit, whether or not money is exchanged) in exchange for the use of the dwelling unit:

- (1) Seasonal residence when used only by the property owner(s) and/or related family members for a portion of the year, and remaining unoccupied the rest of the year.
- (2) Residence when vacant for more than ninety (90) days.
- (3) Residence when ownership is held in trust and occupied by a beneficiary of the trust and/or related family member.

In all waiver cases, property owners are required to follow the rental permit application and renewal process described in Sections 27.726 and 27.728 with the exception of payment of the annual fee. Proof of residency and a list of occupants for each dwelling unit may be required for verification of residency and kinship of occupants.

In all waiver cases, if the City determines that the property owners have either requested or received rent in exchange for the use of the dwelling unit, the waiver approval will be revoked retroactive to the date that rent was first requested or received by the property owner, a permit will be required and the annual fee will be assessed, including any and all related penalties.

(b) Exemptions - other. Properties when used in one of the categories set forth below are not considered rentals for the purpose of this program:

- (1) Dwelling unit is the primary residence of the property owner(s); however, it does not have homestead exemption.

TEMPLE TERRACE CODE
MINIMUM HOUSING CODE

By applying for a permit or waiver, the property owner consents to periodic inspections of the dwelling unit for violations of the Minimum Housing Code and other related codes at any reasonable time; however, this provision shall not be interpreted as authorizing the City to conduct an inspection of an occupied dwelling unit without obtaining either the consent of an occupant or a warrant.

(b) Issuance of permit or waiver. This rental permit or waiver shall be valid for the calendar year of issue and shall be issued and not revoked if:

- (1) The required rental permit fee is paid. (Section 27.729)

A rental permit or waiver shall not be transferred to any other owner. A certificate of inspection shall not be transferred to any other dwelling unit.

(d) Payment; late payment. If the applicable rental permit fee is not paid within the time frames specified in Section 27.729, a late fee shall be due and payable as specified in Section 27.729. (f) Applicant/permit and waiver holder requirements and certifications. The applicant for a rental permit or waiver will be required to make the following certifications, and failure to comply with the provisions of these requirements and certifications as stated below shall be grounds for revocation of the permit or waiver for that unit:

- (1) At no time shall more than three unrelated persons reside within any one dwelling unit located within the City of Temple Terrace. The permit or waiver holder and appointed agent, if any, shall maintain a written list of the names of tenants in each dwelling unit. - (2) In the event the City, either through its Housing Official or other designated representative, provides notice to the property owner or permit holder of repeated violations of City of Temple Terrace ordinances at the dwelling unit that is the subject of a permit or waiver, the property owner, or permit or waiver holder shall promptly pursue all lawful remedies available to it under Florida Law, including but not limited to the Florida Landlord and Tenant Act codified in Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, including, but not limited to termination of the rental agreement.
- (3) No permit or waiver shall be issued or renewed until the applicant, property owner or permit or waiver holder has provided the name, permanent address, and phone number of a natural person 18 years of age or older who can be contacted 24 hours a day, seven days a week, regarding the dwelling unit. This contact person may be the property owner, the owner's agent, or any other person other than a resident of the dwelling unit who has agreed to be the owner's local representative contact person. Such contact shall maintain a local telephone number and a current local physical street address, not a public or private post office box, within one of the following counties in Florida: Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas or Polk.
