TEMPLE TERRACE SUMMER CAMP 'THE BEST DEAL AROUND'

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (6/10/10) – School's out, the last bell has rung, and now it's time for fun as Temple Terrace kicks off its popular Youth Summer Day Camp program.

Temple Terrace's summer camp offers a great alternative for families as recreation programs in other communities raise prices and cut back on services. It's the best deal around, with a wide array of youth activities, sports, swimming, arts & crafts, and field trips.

The Temple Terrace Leisure Services Department is registering youngsters now for the summer camp program, which starts Monday, June 14 and runs through Aug. 20, 2010. The program is for children who have finished kindergarten but not yet entered 8th grade.

Temple Terrace's Family Recreation Complex offers three indoor gyms, five swimming pools, a 150-ft. water slide, plus basketball, tennis, gymnastics, volleyball and much more.

"We have lots to do all summer, with activities for all ages," said Leisure Services Director James Chambers. "It's really a great value."

Swimming lessons are available through our highly acclaimed Temple Terrace Aquatics Program. There's also a competitive summer swim team for those who want to take their skills to the next level.

Field trips make summer camp even more interesting, and this summer's trips include Busch Gardens, the Museum of Science & Industry, Tampa Bay Rays baseball, Adventure Island, Candy College, Qzar Laser Tag and the Temple Terrace Skateplex.

Register now to take advantage of this terrific opportunity. Cost is $465 per child (plus recreation membership fees) until the program is full. Field trips are offered at additional cost.

For more information, call the Temple Terrace Family Recreation Complex at (813) 506-6600.
