TOWN HALL MEETING WILL ADDRESS CITY BUDGET

Downtown redevelopment and other topics to be discussed

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (4/19/10) – The City's budget and financial outlook will be the focus of a Town Hall Meeting on Monday, April 26, 2010 at the Temple Terrace Public Library, 202 Bullard Parkway.

The meeting will start at 6 p.m.

Mayor Joe Affronti and City Council members will be on hand, as well as key staff members and department heads, to answer questions about City services and operations.

City Manager Kim Leinbach will provide an update on the State of the City, including the latest news on Temple Terrace's downtown-redevelopment project. He will unveil plans for a major groundbreaking event on July 2.

The City's proposed 2010-2011 operating budget, which is now being drafted, also will be an important topic of discussion. Temple Terrace is facing a budget shortfall, and tough decisions will have to be made, Leinbach said. Finance Director Diane Reichard will address the financial challenges facing the City and talk about some of the options under consideration.

Town Hall meetings are held quarterly to give Temple Terrace residents a chance to meet with elected officials and City staff in a casual setting, where they may ask questions, share experiences, air complaints or offer suggestions for improving municipal services.

All residents are encouraged to come out, ask questions and share their thoughts on Temple Terrace.

For more information, call the City Clerk's Office at (813) 506-6440.
