FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LIBRARY TO HOST RAIN BARREL WORKSHOP

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (7/15/11) – The Temple Terrace Public Library will host a Rain Barrel Workshop on Saturday, July 30, 2011, starting at 10 a.m.

Lynn Barber, a master gardener with the Hillsborough County Cooperative Extension Service, will lead the workshop.

She will talk about the usefulness and importance of using a rain barrel at home, especially during times of drought. She also will teach participants how to make their own rain barrel using a 55-gallon drum.

Hillsborough County residents who attend will receive a certificate toward a free rain barrel.

The workshop is free and will be held at the library, 202 Bullard Parkway, Temple Terrace.

Seating is limited; it is open to the first 50 attendees.

For more information, call the library at (813) 506-6770.
