CITY TO SHOWCASE TEMPLE TERRACE AREA SCHOOLS

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (10/10/11) – Area schools will be in the spotlight when principals take the stage at two upcoming Temple Terrace City Council meetings.

Mayor Joe Affronti has invited Temple Terrace area schools to showcase their academic programs, athletics and other activities during the City Council meetings of Oct. 18 and Nov. 1, 2011.

Council meetings begin at 6 p.m. at Temple Terrace City Hall, 11250 N. 56th St.

“We thought this would be a wonderful opportunity for parents, businesses, Realtors and others to learn about all the great things our schools are doing,” Affronti said. “The schools are offering some amazing new programs, and we want to get the word out about the educational opportunities that are available.”

Principals and other school representatives will be on hand to share information about their schools and answer questions from parents and others in attendance. Each school will make a brief presentation about what’s happening this year, with a focus on academic programs, new classes, athletics and special events. The presentations will follow regular City Council business.

Tuesday, Oct. 18:

- * Riverhills Elementary School
- * Temple Terrace Elementary School
- * Lewis Elementary School
- * Woodmont Charter School

Tuesday, Nov. 1:

- * Greco Middle School
- * King High School
- * Tampa Bay Technical High School
- * Terrace Community Middle School
- * Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School

Don’t miss this opportunity meet your area school principals and learn about everything our schools have to offer.
