TEMPLE TERRACE TO HOST 'SISTER CITY' VISITORS FROM ENGLAND

(TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – 9/17/07) – Three-dozen residents, singers and dignitaries from Eastleigh, England will visit Temple Terrace Oct. 13-20, 2007 as part of the Sister Cities International exchange program.

Temple Terrace and Eastleigh have been Sister Cities since 1989, and residents from both sides of “the pond” have visited one another from time to time, resulting in close friendships. Eastleigh residents last visited Temple Terrace in 2000.

The Eastleigh visitors will stay with host families in Temple Terrace. While here, they'll be treated to a pool party at the Family Recreation Complex, watch a Masque Community Theatre dress rehearsal, and enjoy dinner and music at the Woodmont Clubhouse.

They'll also take in the sights, visiting the sponge docks in Tarpon Springs, the Florida Aquarium, Busch Gardens and Ybor City.

Eighteen of the visitors are members of a choral ensemble known as the West End Singers. They'll perform a free concert at Florida College on Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. The college is located at 119 N. Glen Arven Ave. Parking is free.

Several dignitaries will be among the visitors, including Eastleigh Mayor Roger Smith and his wife, Sheila. Former Mayor Patrick Hallifax and his wife, Mary, also will be here.

The residents of Temple Terrace offer a warm “welcome” to our British friends.
