TEMPLE TERRACE TO HOST ENCORE JAZZ PERFORMANCE

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (4/17/08) – Thanks to the success of Temple Terrace's inaugural jazz show in February, the City again will host a concert starring USF's excellent jazz ensembles.

The performance is Sunday, April 27, 2008 at 2 p.m. at Masque Community Theatre, 8825 N. 56th St., Temple Terrace. Tickets are $14 (adults), $12 (military, students, seniors) and $10 (children 12 and under).

The concert is a joint promotion of the University of South Florida, the City of Temple Terrace and Masque Community Theatre of Temple Terrace. Here are the featured performers, under the direction of Jack Wilkins, associate professor and director of the USF Jazz Studies Program.

* The USF Jazz Quartet, an eight-piece ensemble whose concert credits include the Montreux Jazz Festival, the North Sea Jazz Festival, and a concert tour of South Africa in 1998.

* The USF Jazz Trio, an outstanding piano trio that has performed on campus with many acclaimed guest artists.

* Elizabeth Nelson, a talented singer previously featured with the USF Jazz Ensemble. Nelson wowed the crowd in February when she performed in Temple Terrace. She will perform with the Jazz Trio, along with Wilkins, who plays saxophone.

* The USF Bone Band, a five-piece trombone section from the USF Jazz Ensemble I, performing special arrangements of classic jazz compositions.

Come out and enjoy a great afternoon of live jazz in Temple Terrace. Refreshments will be available at reasonable prices. Guests may pay at the door or make reservations at www.masquetheatre.net.
