TEMPLE TERRACE REDEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR RESIGNS

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (10/20/08) – Michael W. Marshall, redevelopment director for the City of Temple Terrace, submitted his resignation Monday, officials said.

The resignation takes effect immediately.

City Manager Kim Leinbach said he will assume Marshall's duties as interim redevelopment director while assessing the situation and determining what course of action to take regarding the position.

In his letter of resignation, Marshall cited differences in personalities and business philosophies as factors in his decision to resign from City employment.

Marshall, 41, was hired in May 2008 to oversee the City's multimillion-dollar downtown redevelopment project. He was involved in negotiations and planning related to the project.

Marshall lives in Oldsmar. He is married with three children.
