ENHANCED DUI ENFORCEMENT ON TAP FOR THE HOLIDAYS

(TEMPLE TERRACE, FL – 12/7/10) – The Temple Terrace Police Department will step up efforts to arrest drunk and drugged drivers through December as part of its Holiday Impaired Driving Campaign.

The increased enforcement efforts are scheduled to correspond with the statewide “Over the Limit, Under Arrest” campaign to reduce DUI-related crashes, injuries and fatalities during the holiday season.

This campaign is divided into two phases. The first began Nov. 28 and continues through Dec. 11. The second phase begins Dec. 16 and will continue through Jan. 1, 2011.

The Temple Terrace Police Department will be hosting a multiagency DUI Checkpoint on Bullard Parkway east of 56th Street in Temple Terrace on Friday, Dec. 17. The department also will team up with the Florida Highway Patrol for a Wolf-Pack Saturation Patrol initiative following the checkpoint. Temple Terrace police will be focusing on Temple Terrace during the Saturation Patrol.

In an effort to maintain public safety on area roadways, the Temple Terrace Police Department aggressively enforces state DUI laws and maintains a zero-tolerance policy regarding impaired driving.
