POLICE SEEK HELP IN SOLVING BUSINESS BURGLARY

(TEMPLE TERRACE, FL – 4/12/11) – Temple Terrace police are asking for the public’s help in identifying the suspect(s) in a business burglary that occurred over the weekend.

According to police, the burglary occurred at Morrisound Recording Studio, 12111 N. 56th St., sometime between 9 p.m. on Saturday, April 9 and 9 a.m. Monday, April 11. One or more suspects cut electrical power and phone lines, disabled the alarm, and forced entry into the recording studio.

Once inside, the intruders removed numerous pieces of high-value professional recording gear, including IMAC computers, recording computers, a flat-screen TV, guitars, microphones and other related equipment.

Also taken were a platinum record for the soundtrack to the movie “The Crow,” a platinum record for the Trans Siberian Orchestra’s “Christmas Eve,” and a gold record for the Iced Earth’s “Live in Athens.”

The owner of the studio discovered the break-in Monday morning and called police.

Because of the amount and weight of the items stolen, police believe more than one suspect may have been involved. Suspects possibly used a large van or moving truck to accommodate the equipment.

No photographs or video are available at this time.

Anyone who may have knowledge of this crime should contact the Temple Terrace Police Department at (813) 989-7110.
