CITY OF TEMPLE TERRACE DISTRIBUTING SANDBAGS TO RESIDENTS
*EMERGENCY MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL SCHEDULED FOR 4PM

(TEMPLE TERRACE, FL – August 30, 2019) An emergency meeting of the Temple Terrace Mayor and City Council, acting as the Executive Policy Council for the City’s Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan, will be held at 4 p.m. today, August 30. It is expected that the Council will declare a State of Local Emergency in anticipation of Hurricane Dorian.

The City also will make sandbags available to City residents beginning at noon today at the Sports Complex located at 10369 US Highway 301. The station will be open until 7 p.m. and distribution will resume on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The sandbags are reserved for residents of Temple Terrace who must show a valid ID or recent utility bill that includes a Temple Terrace address. The station will be self-service with bags, shovels and sand provided. Assistance is available for the elderly or persons with disabilities. There is a limit of 10 sandbags per vehicle.

Residents are encouraged to like and follow the City on Facebook (@CityofTempleTerrace) or Twitter (@CityofTempleTer) or to check the City’s website at templeterrace.com for the most recent updates both before and after the storm.
